BRIAN DAVID HILL,	)
	)
Defendant	)

The Defendant, Brian David Hill, by and through undersigned counsel, hereby moves the Court to continue the detention and preliminary revocation hearing in this matter for an additional seven days from the Court's June 4, 2015 scheduled hearing date. In support of this motion, Hill's attorney states the following:

1. On May 28, 2015, undersigned counsel was appointed to represent Mr. Hill.
2. Undersigned counsel had to take an emergency leave of absence for the frail health of both parents due to hospital stays and surgeries.
3. Undersigned counsel has received some vital information from Mr. Hill's family in regards to his health and would like to order the medical records for review.
4. After an opportunity to review and speak with Mr. Hill's parents regarding his Hearing, undersigned counsel recognizes that there are some pending complex mental health issues which would have some relationship to his violations.
5. The undersigned counsel respectfully requests additional time to more fully and adequately prepare for the detention and preliminary revocation hearing.
6. The undersigned counsel has consulted with the Assistant United States Attorney and she does not object to the continuance.
7. This Motion is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay. Neither the Government nor the defendant would be prejudiced by the continuance sought herein.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, counsel for Mr. Hill respectfully requests that the Court grant a continuance for the Detention and Preliminary Revocation Hearing from June 4, 2015 to June 11, 2015 term of court.

Respectfully submitted this 2nd day of June, 2015.

ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Defendant's motion to continue the Detention and Preliminary Revocation Hearing schedule for June 4, 2015, Criminal Term of Court to the June 11, 2015, Criminal Term of Court.

The Court, therefore, concludes that the failure to grant the Defendant's motion to continue would likely result in a miscarriage of justice by denying counsel for Defendant reasonable time necessary for effective preparation and time to meet with the Defendant, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h) (7) (B) (iv). Accordingly, the ends of justice served by the granting of a continuance of this matter outweigh the best interest of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this matter is continued until June 11, 2015, Criminal Term of Court.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Defendant comply with the deadlines contained in the scheduling order that governs the June, 2015, Criminal Term of Court.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, this the 2nd day of June, 2015.
